FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THE GULF COAST LATIN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
ANNOUNCES ADELANTE! MEMBERSHIP LEVEL FOR UNEMPLOYED PROFESSIONALS

SARASOTA-BRADENTON, FL – Aug 18, 2010 – The Gulf Coast Latin Chamber of Commerce announced today that in order to support those affected by the current economy that the Chamber will now offer a membership level geared towards helping unemployed professionals network and facilitate in their job search.

Adelante, in Spanish, means “forward”. The Latin Chamber recognizes the need to move forward with helping the economy recover by growing not only businesses, and therefore jobs, but also by supporting individuals to achieve their potential in the workforce by creating opportunities for them to show off their skills and abilities through volunteerism and community involvement with the Chamber.

As part of this initiative, the Gulf Coast Latin Chamber of Commerce has partnered with Jobing.com Foundation in order to create a job board where individuals can post their resume for free and companies can post the jobs they have available. A portion of the fee to post a job is returned to the Chamber in order to support further business and job growth in our area.

Adelante! Membership is free to unemployed professionals until they find work. Interested individuals can read more at www.latinchamber.org/adelante.

As it has for the past sixteen years, the Gulf Coast Latin Chamber of Commerce is “Working Together for Progress” in our community.

About The Gulf Coast Latin Chamber:

The mission of the Gulf Coast Latin Chamber of Commerce is the promotion, development and dissemination of information, trends and opportunities available to and with the Latin business community of the Florida Gulf Coast area.

Also, the Gulf Coast Latin Chamber of Commerce works through its sister Foundation in providing Community events and needs-based scholarships to area Latino individuals.
